Acknowledgement of Responsible Disclosure

To whom it may concern,

Welmi confirms that Nazar Vlasjuk, an independent security researcher, responsibly reported a security issue affecting the Welmi Android application on September 18, 2026.

Our team reviewed the report and confirmed the issue, which has since been fully resolved. The report was submitted privately and in good faith, and testing was limited to the researcher's own account, with no other users' data affected.

We thank Mr. Vlasjuk for his contribution to the security of our product.

The authenticity of this letter can be confirmed at support@welmi.ai.

Sincerely,

Daniil Zinenko

Head of Engineering, Welmi
